

College of Liberal Arts & Sciences Academic Probation Policy

Students must achieve the following minimum grade point averages in both their University of Iowa grade point average and in their total cumulative grade point average or they are placed (or continued) on academic probation.

Students who have earned 0-29 s.h. must have a UI grade-point average of 1.85 or above and a cumulative (UI and transfer) grade-point average of 1.85 or above to be in good standing.

All other students (including non-degree students) must have a UI grade-point average of 2.00 or above and a cumulative (UI and transfer) grade-point average of 2.00 or above to be in good standing.

Students whose UI and/or cumulative grade point average is below these standards will be placed on academic probation.

Students on academic probation are restored to good standing only if both the University of Iowa grade point average and the total cumulative grade point average equal or exceed the grade point averages designated above.

The pass/nonpass (P/N) grading option may not be used by students on academic probation; however, S/F and S/U courses are allowed.

Entering students (including transfer students) may be admitted on probation if they fail to meet the minimum stated standards for admission.

Tippie College of Business Academic Probation Policy

A student is placed on academic probation when the GPA in any of the following categories falls below 2.00:

- all course work completed
- all course work completed at The University of Iowa
- all business courses completed
- all business courses completed at The University of Iowa
- all courses completed to satisfy requirements for the major,
- and all courses completed at The University of Iowa to satisfy requirements for the major.

When all of the above GPAs equal or surpass 2.00, a student is removed from probation. Normally, a student is allowed only one session to return to good academic standing. A student may be required to attend a course specifically for students who have been placed on academic probation. A student on academic probation who withdraws registration after the deadline for dropping courses may be dismissed.

A student may be dismissed from the University at any time for unsatisfactory scholarship. While some probationary period usually precedes a dismissal, even students in good academic standing who complete a term with extremely unsatisfactory grades may be dismissed immediately. Students dropped from the College for poor scholarship may petition for permission to reregister, but normally only after the expiration of one calendar year following the end of the term in which the dismissal took place.

College of Engineering Academic Probation Policy

Students who do not achieve or surpass the following University of Iowa cumulative and semester minimum grade-point averages are placed on academic probation.

First-year (0-29 s.h. earned toward B.S.E.), 1.80

Sophomore (30-59 s.h. earned toward B.S.E.), 1.90

Junior (60-89 s.h. earned toward B.S.E.), 1.95

Senior (90 or more s.h. earned toward B.S.E.), 2.00

Students on academic probation are restored to good standing when they successfully complete an additional 9 s.h. toward an engineering degree, either in one semester or cumulatively, and their University of Iowa cumulative and semester grade-point averages equal or exceed those designated above.

The college reviews academic records for all students at the end of the fall and spring semesters. There is no review at the end of the summer session. Students are placed on probation, dismissed for unsatisfactory progress (with or without previous probationary status), or restored to good standing only at the end of the fall and spring semesters. Students on academic probation are not permitted to continue their enrollment without written expectations for their future performance.

Students who do not make satisfactory progress may be dismissed from the college without an intervening probationary period. Students, who are dismissed from the college for unsatisfactory academic progress due to circumstances beyond their control, such as a death in their immediate family or extended personal illness, may appeal for a revocation of the dismissal. A student dismissed in January must submit a written appeal by the second day of spring semester classes. A student dismissed in May must submit the written appeal by June 15.

Students dismissed from the college for poor scholarship may appeal to reenroll after an interval of at least one calendar year. A written appeal for reinstatement must be submitted to the Appeals Committee at the Student Development Center. Appeals must be submitted before June 15 for reinstatement in a fall semester or before December 1 for reinstatement in a spring semester.
